

Hope Fest 2018

July 21

7 am - Midnight

Rotary Park, Jefferson, WI

Our theme this year is Courage to Change! It encompasses a lot of things starting with....

- Courage to change the event venue
- Courage to change from a two-day to a one-day event
- Courage to start a team that is excited to change with us
- Courage to be a leader
- Courage to ask new and old members to join your team
- Courage to use the Tomorrow's Hope website to create an individual or team page
- Courage to ask for donations of time and money
- Courage to know the worst thing someone can say is 'no'
- Courage to know that your leadership and giving is making a difference
- Courage to share with others your belief and commitment
- Courage to lead Hope Fest 2018 to new ventures and heights
- Courage to understand that what you do truly is making a difference
- Courage to do something you may never have done before
- Courage to acknowledge that something has changed

But then our courage to change gives those affected by life-limiting illnesses the....

- Courage to make a doctor's appointment
- Courage to hear a diagnosis
- Courage to support a loved one
- Courage to make the right decisions
- Courage to tell other people
- Courage to listen
- Courage to accept a care plan for treatment and recovery
- Courage to adjust to their new 'normal'
- Courage to adjust to their new life after the loss of a loved one
- Courage to get out of bed each day
- Courage to try
- Courage to reach out to someone who is going through a tough time
- Courage to start the healing process
- Courage to be patient with themselves and with others
- Courage to have hope for better tomorrow's
